

May 6, 2009

The Midget A Ice Kats have registered to attend the Nike/Bauer Invitational Tournament in New York on the November 6th Weekend of 2009. If you are selected for this team you will need to have a valid passport to attend the tournament. Please be proactive in attaining your passport. The law will require that anyone travelling to the United States via any mode of transportation will have to show a valid passport. Birth certificates will no longer be valid.

Thank You,
